HYDE PLANS TO HAVE CLEVELAND HEAD EQUITABLE

Young Man Takes Offensive in Fight and Demands that Foes, Alexander, Tarbell and Wilson, Resign-Says They Hurt Business.

HAVE SPREAD FALSE AND MALICIOUS STORIES OF HIM.

Cambon Dinner Arranged by Them as "Business Affair"-Paid for Sherry Ball Himself-Warned by Friends Against Any Talk of a Receiver.

It was reported in financial circles on the authority of a close friend and confident of James H. Hyde to-day, that if Mr. Hyde succeeds in his plan to force the resignation of President James W. Alexander, of the Equitable Society, he will offer his place to former President of the United States Grover Cleveland.

Mr. Cleveland has not had actual insurance experience, but as a financier and business man he stands among the first in the country. Those who heard the rumor said they did not believe it would be possible to drag Mr. Cleveland from the quiet and peace of his Princeton life to engage once more in the whirl of business and finance.

Of course Mr. Hyde's plans are all dependent on his ability to win ou in the offensive fight which he has suddenly undertaken against Mr. Alexander, Second Vice-President Gage B. Tarbell and Third Vice-President George T. Wilson. It is Mr. Hyde's present intention to demand the resignations of these gentlemen at the meeting of the directors on Thursday SECOND RACE-Crossways (7 to afternoon next, and if they refuse them to prefer charges against them, which are to be pressed to the finish. Mr. Hyde's decision reached to-day is the result of the demand made by the Alexander men that he get out himself. He says he will not get out under any circumstances and instead of sitting. The charges also recite that when
